DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-22, are currently pending in the instant application. Claims 5-13 and 15-22 are withdrawn from further consideration by the Examiner, 37 C.F.R. § 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Information Disclosure Statement

Applicant's Information Disclosure Statement, filed on April 30, 2007 has been considered. Please refer to Applicant's copies of the 1449 submitted herewith.

Response to Restriction

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, claims 1-4 and 14, drawn to compounds of structural formula I, as depicted in claim 1, and the specific compound, of Example 1, 11-(2-N,N-dimethylaminoethyl)isoindolo[indol-6-one, in response filed on 13 April 2007 is acknowledged. Applicant's arguments have been fully considered and were found partially persuasive with respect to the restriction requirement. Applicants argue that the restriction requirement does not establish that searching all the inventions would constitute an undue burden to the Patent Office. Applicants argue that Groups I- XIII are not independent and need to be examined together because they have a common core. The argument was found to be partially persuasive and the restrictions between the different groups of the compounds of claims 1-4 and 14 are hereby withdrawn. However, the restriction between the compounds, the method of use and the intermediate compound is maintained. In accordance with M.P.E.P. 821.04 and In re Ochiai, 71 F.3d 1565, 37 USPQ 1127 (Fed. Cir. 1995), rejoinder of product claims and method of use claims commensurate in scope with the allowed product claims will occur following a finding that the product claims are allowable. Until such time, a restriction between product claims and process is deemed proper. Even though an art rejection has not been made in this application, the requirement for restriction is maintained and the search has not been extended. It is pointed out that the restriction requirement is made under 35 U.S.C. 121. 35 U.S.C. 121 gives the Commissioner (Director) the authority to limit the examination of an application where two or more independent and distinct inventions are claimed to only one invention. The Examiner has indicated that more than one independent and distinct invention is claimed in this application and has restricted (limited) the claimed subject matter accordingly. Thus, the requirement to restrict the claims in this application is predicated on the fact that the claimed subject matter involves more than one independent and distinct invention. No where to Applicants argue to the contrary. No where do Applicants point out and give reasons why the claims do not involve independent or distinct subject matter. Accordingly, the restriction is proper. Moreover, it would constitute a burden to extend the search because separate search considerations would be involved in both the U.S. Patents and in the literature. The examination process following the search could easily result in different and thus burdensome considerations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1, page 5, line 2, and recite the term "contains" in reference to the compound. The term "contains" is open-ended in nature whereas a chemical compound must be claimed with precision compound line 33, is indefinite. It is suggested to delete the term " contains” and replace it with terms “have”. Claim 2 and 3 recite “N-oxide forms” in reference to compounds of Formula I. It is unclear what or how many nitrogen atoms are N-oxide forms.

Art Unit: 1626

Deleting the term “N-oxide forms” can obviate the rejection.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claim is independent and recites “A compound of general formula (I)”. The chemical structure of formula (I) is not provided in the claim. The formula is described in the specification and in claim 1. Claims must, under modern claim practice, stand alone to define an invention, and incorporation into claims by express reference to the specification is not permitted. Ex parte Fressola, 27 USPQ 2d 1608 (1993). Therefore, It is suggested that Applicants either provide the structure of Formula I, or make the claim depend on claim 1.
